

IV. Benefits Representative/Specialist

For additional information or assistance, you may contact a Benefits Representative/Specialist located in the Human Resources Office at your center. Additional contacts and phone numbers for benefits information are listed on the NASA Benefits & Pay Website.

Why Should You Use NEBS?

- Saves time. NEBS eliminates the need for you to request paper copies by replacing them with user-friendly technology.
- Cost Savings. NEBS saves the Agency labor hours, distribution costs, and paper usage.
- Convenient. You may access NEBS from your office PC or home with a dial-in account at anytime—24 hours-a-day, 7 days-a-week—to review your current information.
- Reliable. NEBS information is pulled bi-weekly from the NASA Personnel and Payroll System (NPPS).
- Paperless. In keeping with streamlining efforts to reduce paper, NEBS takes advantage of existing technology and is paperless.

Useful Websites

Employee Express

www.employeeexpress.gov

Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB)

www.opm.gov/insure/health/index.htm

Federal Employees Group Life Insurance (FEGLI)

www.opm.gov/insure/life/index.htm

FirstGov

www.firstgov.gov

Life Events

<http://lifeevents.nasa.gov>

Medicare

www.medicare.gov

Office of Personnel Management (OPM)

www.opm.gov

Savings Bonds

www.publicdebt.treas.gov/sav/sav.htm

Social Security Administration

www.ssa.gov

Tax Information

www.irs.ustreas.gov

Thrift Savings Plan (TSP)

www.tsp.gov

Veterans Administration

www.va.gov

Provided to you through a partnership of the
NASA Office of the Chief Information Officer
NASA Office of Human Resources & Education
CD10 / Human Resources Department

Marshall Space Flight Center
MSFC, AL 35812
Phone: 256-544-7536
<http://nasapeople.nasa.gov>

06/01

A vertical banner with a black background. At the top is a large, glowing orange planet (Mars). Below it is a satellite in space. At the bottom is an astronaut in a white spacesuit floating in space. The text "NASA Employee Benefits System" is written vertically in large, white, sans-serif font. To the right of this text, the URL "benefitstatement.nasa.gov" is written vertically in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. At the bottom left is the NASA logo. At the bottom right is the text: "Provided to you through a partnership of the NASA Office of the Chief Information Officer NASA Office of Human Resources & Education CD10 / Human Resources Department".

NASA Employee Benefits System

benefitstatement.nasa.gov

 Provided to you through a partnership of the
NASA Office of the Chief Information Officer
NASA Office of Human Resources & Education
CD10 / Human Resources Department

NASA Employee Benefits System

Serving the NASA workforce

The NASA Employee Benefits System (NEBS) is a web-based, employee-accessible, interactive information and reporting system that translates employee data -- extracted from the NASA Personnel & Payroll System (NPPS) into a comprehensive, user-friendly, detailed summary of your employee benefits. NEBS consists of four main components:

- NASA Benefits & Pay Website
- NASA Employee Benefits Statement
- NASA Benefits Handbook
- Benefits Representative/Specialist at your NASA center

I. NASA Benefits & Pay Website

<http://employeebenefits.nasa.gov>

The NASA Benefits & Pay Website is the on-line source for NASA benefits & pay. It includes an online benefits handbook, a Benefits Quicklook, latest benefits information, current pay tables, and other useful benefits and pay links.

II. NASA Employee Benefits Statement

<http://benefitstatement.nasa.gov>

The NASA Employee Benefits Statement is a comprehensive, confidential 8-page summary that is unique to you. It is intended to give you a concise, personal list of those benefits that vary according to years of service, salary, and personal elections — such as life and health insurance and Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) participation. When used with the on-line NASA Employee Benefits Handbook, this statement should serve as a valuable tool for use in healthcare, financial, retirement, and personal planning. The information in this summary is updated biweekly and is accessible online, 24 hours-a-day.

Your NASA Employee Benefits Statement

To access or print your benefits statement, simply enter the website, type in your Social Security number, and input your NEBS Personal Identification Number (PIN). Your information is protected by the same encryption software used by ATM machines.

Social Security Number:
NEBS PIN Code:

If you lose, forget, or didn't receive your PIN — you can request one from your Benefits Representative/Specialist in your Human Resources Office. You will receive a replacement PIN by intra-center mail.

III. NASA Employee Benefits Handbook

<http://benefitshandbook.nasa.gov>

The NASA Employee Benefits Handbook is provided as a general guide to help you understand the benefits and pay that are available to you as a Federal civil servant working for NASA. This on-line handbook provides a consolidated introduction to the extensive, and often complex, variety of Federal employee benefits. It is intended to provide you and your family an easy-to-understand summary of these benefits.

The chapters are grouped by benefit type and ordered to correspond with the progress of your NASA career -- from those benefits that are most important when you first come to work -- through those that are most important at the time you retire.

This online version is the most up-to-date copy of the handbook, it is updated "real-time" as changes occur in regulations and programs. Limited paper copies may be available through your Human Resources Office.